

JOHN K. BOAS,
Dealer in Lumber,
Ninth & Robeson Sts.,

Reading, Pa., 188

very quiet in Reading and I am about tired of it. I am making a silk table cover expect to get it finished some time, but when, do not ask me. We must soon commence to think about Christmas presents. I can hardly realize it is so near. The last ^{day} of this month my parents will celebrate their 25th Anniversary. We are going to have a quiet time; invite a few friends and have a social time. Now Percy write to me soon, a good long letter. I am afraid you will think I am degenerating as regards letter writing, for this is a poor letter. Give my love to Harry. He sent his to me and I don't want to offend him by not returning mine. If you are his wife you must not get jealous Loveingly

Mother.

How are Ida and Lizzie? You have not said anything about them lately.
